Neuzil To Hold October Government and You Listening Posts

(IOWA CITY IA) Terrence Neuzil, member of the Johnson County Board of Supervisors, will hold his "Government and You" Listening Posts in October. The listening posts last one hour and provide residents an opportunity to discuss local, state and national government issues in an informal setting. Each month during the listening posts, citizens also can learn and discuss a hot and emerging issue that Johnson County is facing. In October, the Hot Topics Discussion will be on the Johnson County Human Rights Ordinance. Earlier this year, Johnson County was the first county in the state of Iowa to pass an ordinance to protect residents against discrimination in areas not already protected by the state. Discussion will include how we can get other area communities and counties to join Johnson County's efforts.

A list of dates, times and locations include:
